CHAPTER 1

PRELIMINARY

1.1 Legal Basis

These Rules are issued by the Bhutan InfoComm and Media Authority (the “Authority”) in accordance with Sections 93 to 104 of the Bhutan Information, Communications and Media Act, 2006 (the “Act”) that requires the Authority to issue Rules governing printing presses, books and newspapers.

1.2 Title and Commencement

These Rules shall be called as the Rules governing printing presses, books and newspapers and shall come into force on the 31st day of July 2008.

1.3 Scope of Application

These Rules applies to all print media and publications within the Kingdom of Bhutan. All print media and publications shall follow these rules while printing or publishing any article/ publications within the kingdom of Bhutan. These Rules should be read in conjunction with all other existing codes of practice and regulations established by the relevant government agencies to promote the healthy development of media.

1.4 Amendments

Amendments will be made according to the needs and changes in national priorities, policies and industry trends. Hence, the amendment of these rules by way of addition, variation or repeal may be effected by the Authority as and when required, after two third majority votes of the Members.

1.5 Interpretation

The power to interpret these rules shall vest with the Authority who may issue such instructions as may be necessary to give effect to and carry out the provisions of these Rules.

1.6 Rules of Construction

In these Rules unless the context indicates otherwise, the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender and the singular shall include the plural.

1.7 Definitions

For the purposes of these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings:

“Act” means the Bhutan Information, Communications and Media Act 2006.

“Authority” means the Bhutan InfoComm and Media Authority.

“Government” means the Royal Government of Bhutan

“Publication”, unless the context indicates otherwise, means the act of making information or stories available to people in any electronic or print form.

“Printing Press” means a machine used for printing. For the removal of doubts, it is clarified that the expression “Press” shall not include any facility established or equipment installed by any person for the sole purpose of printing documents for personal, private or internal organisational purposes.

“Printing” includes (means) writing, lithography, cyclostyling, etc, and other physical or electronic modes or forms of representing or reproducing words, pictures, designs or objects in a visible form.

“Book” includes every volume, part of a volume, pamphlet, booklet, brochure, and every sheet of music notation, map, chart or plan separately printed, in whatever form and language, but it shall not include pamphlets, booklets, brochures or other material produced solely for advertising or publicity purposes or, where it is published by a body, for its internal organizational purposes, or where it is published by a political party, for recognized electoral campaigning purposes.

“Majority” means any individual who has attained an age of 18 and above.

CHAPTER 2

PRINTING PRESSES

2.1 Printing license

Any person who:

- a) is a citizen of Bhutan,
- b) has reached the age of majority,
- c) is of sound mind, and
- d) has not been, under the laws of Bhutan, (i) declared insolvent, and/or (ii) found guilty of a criminal offence concerned either under the Act or any other Act, unless his reputation has been restored through due process of the law, wishes to set up, keep or use any printing press may apply in writing to the Authority for a printing license as required under Section 93(2) of the Act.

2.2 Applications for printing license

- a) The application shall be in the Form set out in the Appendix A hereto, and shall be accompanied by a fee as notified by the Authority, from time to time. The fee structure has been specified in Schedule 1.
- b) The application shall be made at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which the applicant intends to set up, begin to keep or use the printing press in respect of which the license is sought

Provided, however, that, where for exceptional reasons, to be recorded in writing, it would be just and fair to dispense with the requirement of such notice the Authority may, entirely at its discretion, entertain an application submitted within the period of sixty days referred to above.

2.3 Consideration of applications

- a) The Authority shall, on receipt of an application under clause 2.2 above, proceed to consider it forthwith and pass an appropriate order within thirty (30) days of its presentation.
- b) In making its decision, the Authority shall have due regard to all the relevant factors, including those listed in Section 39 of the Act.
- c) The owner/responsible director or any authorized representative of a printing company must inform the Authority of any changes which may occur in the information contained in the application for a printing press, a week before the changes become effective, or if the change was unexpected, within a week of its occurrence.
- d) Where the Authority considers it necessary to call for additional documents or information from the applicant before deciding whether to grant or refuse a licence, it shall require the applicant, through a notice, to provide such documents or information, and the applicant shall submit the same within ten days from the service of such notice.
- e) If the Authority decides to grant a printing licence, it shall notify the applicant immediately, and forward him the licence by registered post or other secure mode requiring the recipient to sign a receipt on delivery, at the address furnished in the application. The Authority may, in addition, also send a duly authenticated copy of the licence via electronic or other means where appropriate. The licence shall be in Form set out in the Appendix B hereto.
- f) If the Authority decides not to grant a printing licence, it shall notify the applicant immediately, and forward him the reasons for the refusal of the licence by registered post or other secure mode requiring the recipient to sign a receipt on delivery, at the address furnished in the application.

- g) If a period of thirty days passes without a decision or if the application is refused, the applicant has the right to appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within thirty days of notification of the refusal or of the passage of without a reply.
- h) After obtaining the printing licence from the Authority, the applicant shall also be required to obtain trade licence before the commencement of the business.

2.4 Term of licence

- a) Every licence granted under clause 2.3 above shall be valid for a period of five (5) years from the date of commencement specified in the licence:

Provided, however, that the Authority may, if it is satisfied, either on the basis of a complaint received in this behalf from any person, or on the basis of its own knowledge and assessment, revoke and/or cancel the licence during the period of its validity where the licence-holder has violated, or failed to comply with, any of the terms, conditions or qualifications of the licence, or where it appears to the Authority that it would not be in the public interest to allow the licence-holder to continue to keep or use the printing press covered by the licence:

Provided further that, before the Authority revokes and/or cancels the licence, it shall provide the licence-holder a reasonable opportunity of being heard and of making representations against the proposed revocation and/or cancellation, which representations shall be considered by the Authority.

2.5 Renewal of licences

- a) A printing licence issued by the Authority under clause 2.3 above may be renewed on the receipt of an application from the person to whom the licence was granted.
- b) An application for renewal of a printing licence shall be made in writing in Form set out in the Appendix C hereto, and shall be accompanied by a fee as specified by the Authority. The fee structure for renewal of the licence has been specified in Schedule 1.

- c) An application for renewal of a printing licence shall be made no earlier than sixty days and no later than thirty days, prior to the date of its expiry. Any application made after the expiry of the said deadline of thirty days shall be rejected, and the licence-holder will be required to make a fresh application for a licence as provided for in clause 2.1 above.

REGISTRATION OF BOOKS AND NEWSPAPERS

3.1 Requirement

- a) Any person who intends to make available for sale or distribution to the public in Bhutan any book and/or newspaper, whether such book or newspaper is published within Bhutan or abroad, shall apply to the Authority for registration of the said book or newspaper. The application shall be made in Form set out in the Appendix D hereto, and shall be accompanied by a fee as specified in Schedule 2.
- b) All books published within Bhutan needs to be registered with the Authority. However, books published and issued by students of registered private schools, government schools and academic institutes concerning their academic work and used within the domains of such schools or institutes are not included. Thus, they do not need to register.
- c) The Authority reserves the right to ban any publication whether published within Bhutan or outside.
- d) The application shall be made at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date on which the applicant intends to begin making the book and/or newspaper available for sale or distribution:

Provided, however, that, where for exceptional reasons, to be recorded in writing, it would be just and fair to dispense with the requirement of such notice the Authority may, entirely at its discretion, entertain an application submitted within the period of fourteen (14) days referred to above.

- e) Where a person intends to make available for sale or distribution more than one book and/or newspaper at the time of making an application referred to in clause 3.1 (a) above, he may include the names and details of all such books and/or newspapers in the same application and pay a single consolidated fee as specified in Schedule 2.

3.2 Considerations of applications

- a) The Authority shall, on receipt of an application under clause 3.1 above, proceed to consider it forthwith and pass an appropriate order. In making its decision, the Authority shall have due regard to all the relevant factors, including those listed in Section 39 of the Act.
- b) Where the Authority considers it necessary to call for additional documents or information from the applicant before deciding whether to register the said book and/or newspaper, it shall require the applicant to provide such documents or information, and the applicant shall submit the same within ten days from the date of service of such notice.
- c) If the Authority decides to register the said book and/or newspaper, it shall notify the applicant immediately, and forward him the certificate of registration by registered post or other secure mode requiring the recipient to sign a receipt on delivery, at the address furnished in the application. The Authority may, in addition, also send a duly authenticated copy of the certificate via electronic or other means where appropriate. The certificate shall be in Form set out in the Appendix E hereto, and shall contain a distinct registration number.
- d) If the Authority decides not to register the said book and/or newspaper, it shall notify the applicant immediately, and forward him the reasons for the refusal by registered post or other secure mode requiring the recipient to sign a receipt on delivery, at the address furnished in the application.

3.3 Register of books and newspapers

- a) The Authority shall maintain a Register of Books and Newspapers in Form set out in the Appendix F hereto.

- b) The Register referred to in clause 3.3 (a) above shall contain separate sections for books and newspapers, and the Authority shall, as soon as it issues a certificate under clause 3.2 above, enter the details therein in the said Register.
- c) Where the details concerning the registration of any book or newspaper undergoes any change, the Register shall be amended accordingly.
- d) The Authority shall make the Register available for inspection by the public, and it may post an online version of the Register on its Website.
- e) Any person wishing to obtain a certified copy of an extract from the Register may apply to the Authority who shall make such copies available on payment of a fee as specified in the Schedule 2.

PUBLICATION

4.1 Applications for a publishing licence

- a) Any person who:
- i. is citizen of Bhutan,
 - ii. is of sound mind, and
 - iii. has not been, under the laws of Bhutan, (i) declared insolvent, and/or (ii) found guilty of a criminal offence concerned either under the Act or any other Act, unless his reputation has been restored through due process of the law,
- wishes to set up a business of publishing books and/or newspapers (i.e. a publishing house), may apply to the Authority for a ‘publishing licence’.
- b) The application for a publishing licence shall be made in writing in Form set out in the Appendix G hereto, and shall be accompanied by a fee as specified in Schedule 2, along with:
- i. a detailed business plan for the publication of the book and/or newspaper;
 - ii. such other information or documents as the Authority may call for; and
 - iii. where applicable, by a ‘bond’ with or without surety in Form in the Appendix H hereto.

4.2 Grant or refusal of a publishing license

- a) The Authority shall, on receipt of an application under clause 4.1 above, proceed to consider it forthwith and pass an appropriate order. In making its decision, the Authority shall have due regard to all the relevant factors, including those listed in Section 39 of the Act, provisions of any relevant Regulations and Directives issued by the Ministry of Information and Communications, and:

- i. the conditions under clause 4.1 above;
 - ii. the qualifications and experience of the applicant in the publishing or related business;
 - iii. whether the application discloses a viable business plan;
 - iv. whether the book and/or newspaper proposed in the application is likely to contribute to the development of a diverse and vibrant media sector in Bhutan;
 - v. whether the book and/or newspaper proposed in the application will contribute to a healthy competition among book and/or newspaper publishers in Bhutan; and
 - vi. whether the book and/or newspaper proposed in the application is likely to pose any threat to the sovereignty, security, unity and integrity of Bhutan, or threat to the interests of peace, stability and well-being of the nation.
- b) Where the Authority considers it necessary to call for additional documents or information from the applicant before deciding whether to grant or refuse the licence, it shall require the applicant to provide such documents or information, and the applicant shall submit the same within ten days from the date of service of such notice.
- c) If the Authority, after considering the application, including such other additional documents or information as referred to in clause 4.2 (b) above, decides to grant the licence applied for, it shall notify the applicant immediately, and shall forward him the licence by registered post or other secure mode requiring the recipient to sign a receipt on delivery, at the address furnished in the application. The licence shall be in Form set out in the Appendix I hereto, and it shall state clearly the date of commencement thereof:

Provided, however, that where the Authority has required the applicant to comply with any prerequisites and/or formalities (including the execution of a surety bond or bonds) before the issuance of the licence, it may not forward the licence until those prerequisites and/or formalities have been complied with to the satisfaction of the Authority.

- d) In granting the licence, the Authority may impose such conditions as it may deem appropriate, and the applicant shall be deemed to have accepted those conditions unless he notifies the Authority to the contrary and returns the licence forwarded to him under clause 4.2 (e) below to it within seven days of receipt thereof.
- e) If the Authority decides not to grant the licence applied for, it shall notify the applicant immediately, and forward him the reasons for the refusal of the license, by registered post or other secure mode requiring the recipient to sign a receipt on delivery, and at the address furnished in the application, the reasons for the refusal of the licence.
- f) If the requested license is refused, the applicant has the right to appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within thirty (30) days of the notification of the refusal.

4.3 Validity of a publishing licence

- a) Every publishing licence issued under clause 4.2 shall be valid for a period of five (5) years from the date of commencement of the licence, unless:
 - i. it is surrendered by the licensee earlier; or
 - ii. it is revoked and/or cancelled by the Authority earlier; or
 - iii. it is terminated by cause of death or legal incapacity of the license-holder earlier.

Any publication thereafter, without the permission of the Authority, would be deemed to be illegal and may entail appropriate consequences as the Authority will decide.

4.4 Revocation/cancellation of a publishing licence

- a) The Authority may revoke and/or cancel a publishing licence issued under clause 4.2 above in any of the following circumstances:

- i. where the licensee, if an individual, becomes bankrupt, or if a company, goes into liquidation; or
 - ii. where the licensee breaches any of the conditions attached to the licence.
- b) Before a publishing licence is revoked and/or cancelled, the Authority shall give the licensee a reasonable opportunity of being heard and of making representations, and where any representations have been made, it shall give them due consideration.
- c) Where a person whose licence has been revoked and/or cancelled under this Rule is aggrieved by the decision to revoke and/or cancel the publishing licence may prefer an appeal against the same to the Appellate Tribunal within a period of thirty days from the date on which the notice of revocation and/or cancellation is received by him.

4.5 Requirement to carry certain information

The publisher of every book and/or newspaper published in Bhutan shall cause to be printed:

- a) in the first issue of the book and/or newspaper on or immediately after the first day of January each year, the following:
 - i. the names, nationalities, and addresses of the directors of the company publishing it, and of those persons who own more than ten percent of the shareholding in the said enterprise.
- b) in every copy of the book and/or newspaper;
 - i. the names of the editor, publisher and printer;

- ii. the place of printing and the address of the registered office;
- iii. date of printing; and
- iv. where applicable, relevant notices regarding copyrights.
- v. Registration no.

4.6 Repository

- a) The Authority may require the publisher of any printed material (i.e. newspapers magazines, books, literary and artistic works of all kinds), to submit certain number of copies for depositing them in the National Library, who would be the legal repository for the said printed material. Once an order is passed and served on the publisher under this Rule, such printed material, shall be deposited at the repository:

Provided that, if the printing medium is electronic or Internet - Web based copies and particulars of those information are also to be submitted in the same manner as is followed for hard copies of such printed material.

- b) All printed material shall carry on the first or last page reference to the number of their deposit in the National Library;
- c) When printed material is issued, three copies shall be deposited with the Authority. A receipt shall, as in Form set out in the Appendix J hereto, shall be given for these deposits.
- d) If a reprint of printed material is carried out with alteration, three copies shall be deposited with the Authority. A receipt shall, as in Form set out in the Appendix J hereto, shall be given for these deposits.
- e) Three copies of any printed material published by any Bhutanese author or translator outside the country shall be deposited with the Authority by the publisher or the importer, as the case may be. A receipt shall, as in Form set out in the Appendix J hereto, shall be given for these deposits.

- f) Importers of printed material shall deposit three copies of each publication imported, with the Authority before circulation. A receipt shall, as in Form set out in the Appendix J hereto, shall be given for these deposits.

4.7 Requirement to file annual statement

- a) The publisher of every book and/or newspaper published in Bhutan shall, on or before the 31st day of January, file a statement (hereinafter referred to as the “annual statement”) with the Authority giving details of its print run, regularity of publication and such other information as may be specified by the Authority in relation to the calendar year immediately preceding that date.
- b) The annual statement shall be in Form set out in the Appendix K hereto, and it shall be signed by the publisher.
- c) Any publisher who fails to comply with the requirements of this Rule shall be guilty of an offence as per the Act.
